

27th Annual

DAY ONE RECAP

Game 1 - Girls - Cordova 59 Bethel 27

Cordova and Bethel both started slow, playing solid defense on both sides. However Cordova started pressing full court and then begin the Lady Warriors demise. Cordova converted multiple turnovers into easy baskets and overwhelmed the Warriors for the final 32 point margin. Freshman Kira Polk of Bethel was a bright spot for the Warriors, she finished with 14pts. Cordova's Olivia Kelly had 16pts.

Game 2 - Boys - Cordova 62 Bethel 39

Cordova and Bethel scrapped early before Cordova was able to force turnovers on defense and start building their lead. Cordova didn't hit its first three until the 2nd quarter. Wolverine guard, Dane Meyer hit four threes in the game, three of those in the second half to give the Cordova commanding lead that it would not relinquish. Cordova Coach Jason Boerger was able to defeat his Uncle Norm once again. This was Cordova;s first win in front of the home crowd. Meyer led Cordova with 16 points, Christian Brockert & Mikee Riodicca had 15pts.each for the Wolverines as well. Christian Osentoski finished with 14pts. to lead the Warriors.

Game 3 - Girls - Seward 47 Tri Valley 9

Seward simply outmanned Tri Valley in this affair. The Lady Warriors had only 6 players at Coach Talerico's disposal. Seward played well on defense and forced turnovers all night and scored easy baskets to dominate this game. Tri Valley managed only 6 points through three quarters. Alex Espelin led the Seahawks with 11pts.

Game 4 - Boys - Seward 85 Tri Valley 45

Seward out ran and outplayed Tri Valley in this one. Seward seemed to fly up and down the court converting easy baskets off of Tri Valley miscues. Tri Valley played hard all night despite this games outcome being decided in the first half. A bright spot for Tri-Valley was forward Ben Renshaw who finished with 20pts. Seward was led by Robert Perea with 21pts.

Tip-Off Page